Mission Statement

The San Francisco Conservation Corps offers young people opportunities to develop themselves, their academic abilities and marketable job skills while addressing community needs through service work.

Goals 2010

To empower Corpsmembers to become economically self-sufficient and productive adults

To empower Corpsmembers to attain the highest level of education and training at the Corps and beyond

To restore and improve parks and open space, community centers, schools and other public spaces for the benefit of San Francisco residents and visitors

To promote conservation awareness and civic engagement through meaningful community service work and environmental education

Year Established: 1983

Organization's service area:
City of San Francisco

SEE WHAT OPPORTUNITY CAN DO.

OPPORTUNITY CHANGES LIVES

Since 1983, over 5,000 very-low-income young adults have made a commitment to improve their future. They joined SFCC, went back to school and experienced the working world.

OPPORTUNITY IMPROVES THE COMMUNITY

SFCC has been a key partner in the restoration of many San Francisco recreation areas, including Crissy Field, Glen Canyon and dozens of local parks, community centers and gardens.

OPPORTUNITY GREENS OUR CITY

In this past year alone, Corpsmembers diverted over 280 tons of recyclables heading toward our city's landfills. And our newly established Urban Green Team provided recycling and education services at over 100 outdoor public events.

This is your opportunity. Every dollar donated to SFCC helps young adults improve their future. And they, in turn, make our city a better place to live.
